COULD NOT AGREE

After twenty-four hours' deliberation in the case of the government against R. Thomas Furkins, former postinaster of King George Courtheuse, in which the latter is accused af rifling the mails of 35.25, the jury in the United States District Court was discharged vesterday afternoon by Judge Edinand Waddill, Jr.

It is understood that the jurors stood nine to three in favor of a verdict of guilty against the accused.

Slashed in Thigh.

C. E. Barton, of 1907 East Main Street, was struck by a bottom saw will working in the Richmond Cedar works vesterday afternoon, and a six-linch gash was cut in his righ thigh. Nevertheless he was able to walk home, and there he called for the city ambulance. He was attended by Dr. Turman, of the city ambulance.

Child Scalded.

Maria Johnson, colored, four years old, bulled a kettle of boiling water on herself yesterday afternoon, and was painfully scalded. All the skin on her left arm was burned away, and she was in terrible agony when Dr. Turman, of the city ambulance, arrived. He treated her, and left her in the > T. O. Sandy, of Burkeville, came to the city last night armed with interesting statistics for the consideration of the United Agricultural Board, which meets in the Governor's office is morning. No fewer than 2,000 Virginia boys are enrolled in the corn clubs of the various counties for the coming season. The report shows the imount contributed in each county by the Boards of Supervisors, the personnel of the clubs and the outlook for the year. Mr. sandy is full of the work accomplished, and anticites wonderful results for the season It is Mr. Sandy's opinion that no more counties can be cored for this year, as with those already on the lifet the appropriation will be cahausted.
